In 1985 Claire Oliver was the first female Club member to gain her Yorkshire vest, which was for cross country. She also represented Yorkshire as a 300m runner. She, along with Alison Fletcher, Donna Riddler, Barbara Ann Sygmuta and Andrea Woodvine are the only Club female athletes to gain County honours at both cross country and track, Andrea having gained selection on 6 occasions (2 track and 4 cross country). Other females not featured in the above rankings who have gained Yorkshire vests at cross country are Sophie Howard, Kate Connell, Barbara- Ann Sygmuta, Louise Jackson, Helen Darbyshire, Jessica Roberts, Scarlet Gray and Ashleigh Robinson and on the track Emma Martin-Law (high jump) and Barbara -Ann Sygmuta (800m).
